July Charity of the Month: Home-Start Richmondshire

Richmondshire Supporting families across Richmondshire

Our Aim is for every parent to have the support they need to give their children the best possible start in life.

Home-Start Richmondshire's friendly and caring volunteers understand the joys, frustrations and challenges of bringing up children. A volunteer visits a family at home once a week, offering time, friendship, support, encouragement and practical help for as long as is needed.

There really is no issue too small or insignificant.

This is a truly local charity worthy of our consideration and support during July. Lots of interesting information available on their website at:

www.homestarrichmondshire.org.uk

Loungers (formerly "Ladies' Night") on Friday 19th July

All ladies are welcome to come along to Morro Lounge on Friday 19th from 7.30pm for this monthly social event. We'd love to see you there! If you'd like more information, please contact Helen Rowan.

Strawberry Tea at Marrick Priory on 21st July from 3pm.

Everyone welcome for tea with scones and Strawberries and Cream. Reeth Brass band will provide music, raffle, and activities for children and families. Admission free with transport from Grinton Field from 3 pm. Please come.

Café Church, Sunday July 21st, 4pm

Bishop John will be in conversation with our Assistant Curate Revd. Lorna Heatley, giving us an early opportunity to get to know her story and what makes her tick!

200 Club: annual subscriptions are due – and available

The concept of the 200 Club is to raise funds for our church. There are 200 numbers in a draw made on the second Sunday of each month (with a second draw in December). The lucky person whose number comes out of the bag receives £50. Each ticket is £10 for the year and you can hold as many as you wish. I have some spare numbers if you wish to join or to increase your numbers. I am still awaiting payment from a few members: I will be in church on Sunday to take payment or to allocate new numbers to be included in the coming year's draw.
